(a) 1995 c. 18. Section 35(1) is an interpretation provision and is cited because of the meaning given to "prescribed" and "regulations". Sections 35(1) and 36 have been amended but not in ways material to these Regulations.

(b) 1992 c. 5.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations 1996 ('the JSA Regulations').

Regulation 2(2) amends regulation 72 of the JSA Regulations so that, irrespective of their period of entitlement to a jobseeker's allowance, a claimant will not generally be able to show good cause for failing to carry out a jobseeker's direction or to apply for or accept certain types of employment if the reason for the failure relates to the time it would take, or normally take, for them to travel for those purposes by a route and means appropriate to their circumstances and to the employment, or to the carrying out of the jobseeker's direction, where that time is less than one hour and thirty minutes.
